Informal BBQ with Burgers, Brats and Hot Dogs at 6:00 p.m.

Meeting was called to order at 6:45 p.m. by Leigh Fenton.
Leigh Fenton provided an update on BPECC.

There was a review of the agenda items and continuing discussion on this years conference.

Topic of Membership Recruitment: Brad with Maple Sales said the Flowmatic Rep will be in town July 13 – 15. They offered to host a 6 p.m. Flowmatic Backflow Prevention Assembly presentation at their facility at 3950 Nome St, Unit G, Denver. The City of Arvada is hosting the regular CBPA meeting at 9:00 a.m. on July 14, the same presentation will be offered there.

Fred Spengler did a short presentation on the Spill Resistant Vacuum Breaker.

Leigh Fenton presented a question asked by another tester. A Wilkins 950 DC. The tester was indicating that he is experiencing multiple failures with these devices in different applications, sites and sizes. The feeling without exception was test procedure error. Suggestions made to try ASSE 1015-3 or the Site Tube to verify readings.

Trouble Shooting - There was a lengthy discussion regarding relief valves opening high.

Brad with Maple Sales had a RP that we took apart and put back together. That assembly was then given as a door prize. The Winner – Michell McCreery

Brad Prochnow made a motion to approve the April minutes, second by Gary Edwards.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:45
