Old Business

- Meeting minutes from October 9 approved with minor changes.
- The transition from ASSE assembly test procedures to USC assembly test procedures is on hold for the time being. However, will take place sometime next year.
- An emergency response plan addressing backflow incidents is available on the website.
- CBPA bylaws are available on the website.
- The Educational Committee is looking for schematics representative of approved backflow preventer assembly installations.
- The Video Committee is open to suggestions for the purchase of cross-connection control related videos.
  - The CBPA has decided not to pursue creating our own video at this time due to prohibitive production costs.
- The "Professional Certification Center" is not being pursued due to prohibitive time requirements. This would be a database maintained by the CBPA and available on the website that would list a contractor's certification status, insurance records, and gauge calibration records. Creation and maintenance of the database requires a substantial labor investment.

- Tamra Krebs has volunteered for the Election Subcommittee. Please contact Judy Schmidt if you are interested in volunteering for the subcommittee.

New Business

- There will be a CBPA photo contest at the December Christmas celebration.
- Motion to pay the domain name registration fee for the CBPA website passed.
- Motion to waive $5.00 fee to cover catering at the December Christmas celebration passed.
- The CBPA officer elections for 2003 are upon us. Ballots will be mailed in December. Returned ballots must be postmarked no later than December 31, 2002. The ballots will be counted at the January 2003 meeting.
- Current nominations include:
  - Paul Tedesco (Secretary)
  - Tara Conyers (Treasurer)
  - Scott Campbell (Vice President)
  - Steve Eastberg (Vice President)
  - Leigh Fenton (President)
  - Al Hoke (President)
- Nominations remain open through the end of November.
  - Nominations must be seconded by another member of the CBPA.
- Meeting adjourned at 10:00.
